
Berward Adams is now Healthcare: Medical technology & IT-National and International

Berward Adams is now Healthcare: Medical technology & IT-National and International at Consulting & Advisory. He has over 25 years of comprehensive professional experience in national/ international business management and sales/ marketing of single use and investment products as well as IT and software solutions in leading healthcare companies.

In 2019, Adams was General Manager Pharmacy Sales+ Services at CompuGroup Medical SE. His responsibilities included leading and coaching teams of 200+ employees in sales, marketing, service, support, and order processing. He has first-hand expertise and knowledge to make superior business and investment decisions for small and mid-size companies as well as large corporations, investment funds and consulting firms.

Published on : Wed, 3 Nov 2021