

IHF Awards 2023 – Nomination Period Opens for Outstanding Achievements in Healthcare

The International Hospital Federation (IHF) has launched the 2023 edition of the IHF Awards – the premier, annual awards programme for hospitals and healthcare organizations worldwide.

Entries are being accepted in seven IHF Awards categories:

- Dr Kwang Tae Kim Grand Hospital Award – recognizing excellence in the five dimensions of healthcare delivery: health service quality, patient experience, clinical outcomes and health equity, cost efficiency, and workforce wellbeing.
- Seddiqi Holding Excellence Award for Corporate Social Responsibility – acknowledging excellence or outstanding achievements in advancing corporate social responsibility.
- Ashikaga-Nikken Excellence Award for Green Hospitals – honouring hospitals and healthcare organizations promoting sustainable and eco-friendly initiatives.
- Sultanate of Oman Excellence Award for Health Services During Crisis – recognizing exemplary achievements of hospitals and healthcare organizations in developing countries during a time of crisis.
- American Hospital Association Excellence Award for Healthcare Workers' Wellbeing – recognizing excellence or outstanding achievements in ensuring the wellbeing and integration of healthcare workers.
- American College of Healthcare Executives Excellence Award for Leadership and Management – honouring excellence or outstanding achievements in leadership and management for hospitals or healthcare organization.
- Austco Excellence Award for Quality and Patient Safety – acknowledging excellence or outstanding achievements in promoting and enhancing quality and patient safety.

The Awards Committee, comprising health leaders from around the world and chaired by IHF Honorary Member, Dr Lawrence Lai, will score each entry on its merits using a set of judging criteria.

2022 Gold Laureate, Dr Takashi Nishizaki of the Japanese Red Cross Matsuyama Hospital, commented on the recognition of its staff and the impact on his organization and the community they serve:

"After we won the IHF Gold Award for Green Hospitals, we came to know that our environmental efforts were of a high standard and had the confidence to influence others in promoting a green and sustainable environment. Our staff are honoured and proud of the hospital's sustainability initiative and even more motivated. "
