
Jim Parker Joins InformAI as Senior Advisor

InformAI, Inc., a digital healthcare company based in Houston, TX, is pleased to announce that Mr. Jim Parker has joined the company as a senior advisor. In his key leadership role, Parker will provide advisory support for InformAI's mission to advance healthcare through analytics and bringing AI-enabled imaging and clinical decision support products to the healthcare and payer markets.

"Jim Parker brings extensive leadership experience in the insurance payer markets, including senior executive roles at Indiana University Health, Anthem and Wellpoint, as well as HHS where he served as an advisor to the Secretary of Health and Human Services" said InformAI Founder and CEO, Jim Havelka.

Leveraging data within healthcare and payer organizations can provide important operational strategic advantages and enhanced data insights for clinicians to improve patient outcomes. I look forward to working with the InformAI leadership team as they bring innovative analytics solutions to these markets," said Parker.
