
Radiology Information System with Citrix Ready Speech Recognition

Community hospitals, out-patient imaging centres and integrated delivery networks can now implement a digital radiology reporting workflow independent of their type of network architecture and client hardware. This is expected to significantly advance speech recognition-based radiology reporting and lead to more accurate, convenient and efficient information capturing in healthcare.

Published on : Wed, 10 Dec 2008