
SDA Bocconi School of Management Announce Master of International Healthcare Management Economics and Policy

The Master of International Health Care Management Economics and Policy – MIHMEP has four new specialisations:

- Health Care Management
- Global Health & Development
- Health Systems Planning & Governance
- Pharmaceutical & Medical Technology

The 12-months Master of International Health Care Management Economics and Policy (MIHMEP) helps you sort through the complexity of healthcare issues around the world in order to analyse, understand and manage them. MIHMEP allows students to acquire the specific skills and abilities to successfully manage organisational and policy changes in healthcare systems around the globe. MIHMEP intends to train a new cadre of professionals through an itinerary comprising 9 months of classroom activities and a 3 month field project:

Core Courses:

Epidemiology Financial Accounting
Health Care Systems & Policy Health Economics
Foundations of Management Quantitative Methods
Cost Accounting Economic Evaluation of Health Care Programs
Issues in Public Health Global Health and Development
Health Care Management Health Systems Planning and Governance
Pharmaceutical and Medical Technology

Admission Deadline 15th of July 2012

Published on : Mon, 30 May 2011