
Study Shows Benefits of CT Angiography over Digital Subtraction Angiography

A team of clinicians from the Medical University of Vienna in Austria recently conducted a retrospective analysis of clinical outcome among patients referred for CTA during a 13-month period because of peripheral occlusive disease in Fontaine stage IV (tissue loss). Their results, published in this month

Published on : Mon, 18 May 2009